Peterson charging Demo committee impropriety

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The apparent loser in a recent rerun election in two precincts in the Hancock County District One supervisor race is charging the County Democratic Executive Committee impropriety. Improperly authorized the repeat vote.

Robert B. Peterson Jr. of Clermont Harbor, through his attorney Charles T. Sykes Jr. of Gulfport, Friday morning was granted a restraining order by Chancellor William L. Stewart of the Eighth State Chancery Court District—Division One (which includes Hancock).

The order restrains the Hancock Election Commission and The Sea Coast Echo from printing official ballots to be utilized in Hancock voting machines in the Nov. 8 General Election until Friday.

A Chancery Court hearing before Stewart is scheduled for 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Hancock Courthouse in Bay St. Louis at which time the Democratic committee must reply to Peterson's petition.

Charles Gottschalk, commission secretary and county election coordinator, stated Friday, "The election commission is being sued because of past acts of the Democratic Executive Committee."

Peterson's petition lists that the committee did not have a quorum, as required by the organization's by-laws, at a Sept. 16 hearing in which those members present decided to conduct a Oct. 4 rerun of the Aug. 23 Democratic Second Primary election in the Waveland East and Arlington Precincts.

Bert Courge, the incumbent supervisor, requested the hearing in which he and his attorneys brought evidence of irregularities in the Aug. 23 runoff conducted in those two precincts.

The committee members, apparently based on that evidence, decided to conduct the rerun vote in the two precincts.

Peterson was winner by about 18 votes in the runoff, but lost in the rerun by more than 200 votes.

Peterson's petition contends that 14 members of the 32-person committee participated in the hearing while the committee by-laws require at least 16 for a quorum. Committee members were not properly notified of the meeting, the petition states.

"...all action taken ... was a nullity and void in that the committee did not have a quorum present as required by its constitution and by-laws, nor was proper and timely notice of the meeting given nor was the notice requirements thereof waived," the petition lists.

Gottschalk said the election commission will meet at a yet to be determined time Monday night to discuss the restraining order and select an attorney to represent it at the Wednesday hearing.

The commission secretary noted the organization had previously scheduled a poll workers and managers school for 7 p.m. Monday at the Gulfview School cafeteria to train those individuals to prevent irregularities in the upcoming election.

He reported that in the committee's ongoing twice-weekly classes that no workers from the Standard, Dedaux and Crane Creek Precincts have yet attended.

Gottschalk emphasized that longtime poll workers and managers in addition to new ones must attend the classes to be eligible to work in the November election.

"All the problems we've had in past elections wouldn't have happened if the poll workers had properly done their jobs," he stated.

"But we've had a hard time getting these people to these schools," Gottschalk added.

Poll workers must attend manager's training class

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT

Hancock County poll workers who have not attended the Poll Managers' School will not be eligible for poll work in the Nov. 8 election.

Final sessions of the training classes will be held this week.

The classes are being conducted by the Hancock County Election Commission.

Charles F. Gottschalk, commission secretary and coordinator of Hancock County elections, notes that state law requires all poll managers to attend the school.

He says other interested citizens and prospective poll workers are welcome to attend. All participants will be given a certificate.

Gottschalk says that no one from the Standard, Dedaux and Crane Creek precincts has attended any of the prior classes.

"All the problems that we've been having with elections have occurred because poll workers have not done their jobs properly," Gottschalk said. "But we've had a hard time getting long-time poll workers to the school."

Instructions classes will be held Mon., Oct. 24 at Lakeshore School cafeteria; Tues., Oct. 25 at the Kiln Farm Bureau Building; and Wed., Oct. 26 at the Courthouse, Bay St. Louis.

SO apprehends Lewis, three at large

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT

Leonard Lewis, one of four men who escaped from the Hancock County jail two days ago, was recaptured last night.

The other three escapees remain at large.

According to Alvin Ladner, Hancock County criminal investigator, sheriff's department personnel apprehended Lewis in Bay St. Louis about 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

The men escaped from jail about 1 a.m. Friday morning.

Sheriff Ronnie Peterson said Saturday morning that although his office had received numerous calls from people claiming to have seen the men, law enforcement officials had not been able to locate and apprehend them.

According to Peterson, the men escaped after they were moved from a maximum security cell to a wire cage outside the cell by a jailer. Peterson said he does not know why the men were taken out of maximum security and that it was against all regulations for the jailer, who was alone at the time, to have done so.

When the jailer left the area, the men apparently managed to pull the wire up from the bottom of the cage, crawl through the hole and drop down onto the stairwell below.

They then escaped over the fence of the exercise yard.

The jailer, who has since been relieved of his duty, did not see the men leave, but a dispatcher who witnessed the escape sounded an immediate alarm.

The escapees still at large late Saturday are Jay Bee Cunningham and Gerald Rucker of New Orleans, and Charles Teague of Waveland.

Cunningham, 28, black, has escaped from jail twice before. He is five feet, seven inches tall and weighs about 135 pounds. He was serving a life sentence for rape and also faces charges of kidnapping and armed robbery.

Rucker, 25, black, five feet nine inches, 150 pounds, was serving a five-year sentence for parole violation.

Teague, 31, white, five feet five inches, 130 pounds, was serving a ten-year sentence for burglary. He has escaped from jail once before.

Lewis, 21, black, five feet five inches, 130 pounds, was serving a one-year sentence for burglary and a parole violation.

Cunningham and Teague had not been transferred to the state penitentiary because their cases were being appealed. Lewis and Rucker were sentenced only last week and had not yet been moved to the state penitentiary.

Jordan found guilty, sentencing next week

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT

Henry Paul Jordan, found guilty early Thursday morning of manslaughter, will be sentenced next week by Circuit Judge J. Ruble Griffin.

Jordan, Waveland resident and former Bay St. Louis auxiliary policeman, was charged with killing the Rev. Robert Hargrett on Nov. 12, 1981, after discovering the contractor with Jordan's wife Florence.

Mrs. Jordan admitted during Jordan's trial that she had been in an affair with Hargrett.

Johnson told the jury that Jordan knew about or suspected the affair and went to Hargrett Construction Company with deliberate intentions to kill Hargrett.

Defense attorney Boyce Holleman claimed self-defense.

Jordan testified that he knew nothing about his wife's affair, that he did not know who was "killing" on the sofa when he kicked the door in and entered, and that Hargrett jumped on him and began a fight that ended with the shooting.

Jordan said he did not know whose

Nothing quite heralds the fall season as much as the tantalizing aroma of newly harvested apples, one of the special joys that autumn brings.

With the apple harvest at its peak in October, this ever so versatile fruit comes into its own. October has for years been designated National Apple Month, when we all pay tribute to King Apple.

From the days of the early colonists in America, the apple was a symbol of hospitality, from sharing a tankard of sparkling apple cider in the tavern to hot apple pie and cheese for dessert. And what about the apple for the teacher?

The colonists had prudently tucked apple seeds amongst their belongings when they journeyed to these shores, and apple trees flourished in New England and Virginia. As settlers trekked westward in later years, they usually made room in their wagons for apple seedlings, and planted their orchards as soon as they had set up their homesteads.

So, today as in those days, apples are favorites, and apple pie remains one of our favorite dishes, no matter how many and varied the other desserts. Apple dumplings are my first choice, easily made. Here's:

APPLE DUMPLINGS

WITH CIDER SAUCE

6 apples, pared and cored
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
2 Tbsp. butter
Crust for dumplings
2 cups biscuit mix
1/2 cup apple cider

(Or you may make your own pie crust or use a mix, if you prefer. I like this dough for dumplings.)

Peel and core the apples. Mix the sugar, butter (or margarine) and cinnamon and nutmeg together. Stir the biscuit mix and cider to make the dough. Divide dough into six and roll each portion into a square large enough to envelop the apple.

Place each apple in center of its square. Fill the center of the apple with the brown sugar mixture. Press the dough around the apple, dampening the edges to make it easier. Bake (on baking sheet) for half an hour at 350 degrees.

Meanwhile, make your sauce...just combine a cup of apple cider, a half to a cup of brown sugar and a quarter of a cup of butter or margarine...depending upon your sweet tooth, and bring to a boil...then pour over the dumplings. (Six servings.)

These are delicious without the cider, but it does add a certain something! You can make the sauce with the brown sugar and butter, adding water instead of cider. I often like to enlarge the cavity when I core the apple, and stuff in some chopped pecans and raisins, along with a dash or so of chopped lemon rind...and, I almost forgot to tell you, be sure to cut little incisions around the middle of the apple, to keep it from bursting.

As for the kind of apples to use, I like Rome Beauty or Winesaps best, for their tart taste, but suit your own palate.

Why We Are Building A New Hospital...

The construction of a new hospital for Hancock County has been much in the news lately. In order to clarify many points and questions being asked by the public, the Hancock General Hospital Board of Trustees would like to take this means to answer some of these questions.

Did You Know

1. Hancock General Hospital was built in 1960 as a 36-bed facility, with support services for those 36 beds. In 1964, 20 additional beds were added, but no provisions were made to expand the support services.

2. The present facility utilizes 29,700 square feet of space; but current services and needed additional services require at least 65,000 square feet of space.

3. At the present facility, there is a traffic problem due to a lack of improvements to Dunbar Avenue and the traffic from the elementary school across the street. The shopping center at Dunbar Avenue and Highway 90 has created additional traffic problems.

4. During Hurricane Camille in 1969, Hancock General did not receive any flood waters, but became inaccessible due to flood waters filling lowlying areas surrounding the hospital and blocking access roads.

5. According to a building evaluation study done in 1981 by Nix, Mann and Associates, Inc., of Atlanta, Georgia, by request of Hospital Corporation of America, the electrical systems and equipment at Hancock General were found to be in relatively poor condition. Repair and updating would be difficult in many instances due to inaccessibility of parts and ceilings.

6. The mechanical systems in the present building, according to the same study, are 17-23 years old, approaching or exceeding the normal life expectancy of most of the equipment. It is not unreasonable to have major expenditures to replace or make major repairs to the equipment within the next few years.

7. According to an economic profile of Hancock County prepared by the Mississippi Research and Development Center, population in the county is estimated to increase from 24,592 to 32,000, or 18%, by 1990. Bay St. Louis, with a present population of 7,850, will see an estimated 20% increase to 9,850. Waveland, with 4,223 now, will increase to approximately 6,000, or 30%. Therefore, a new facility should be located in the most heavily populated geographical area, which is the twin cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

8. Renovation of the present building would take two years, during which time the hospital could not be operational due to a disruption of services and personnel. There would also be no improvement in flow patterns, and the old systems would be difficult to change due to the present layout, i.e., use of the main corridor for visitors, emergency equipment, post surgery and delivery patients, location of the nursery, etc.

9. In order to correct the deficiencies in the present building, it would cost approximately $4.5 million, while the addition of 30,000 square feet would cost another $4.5 million, and these figures do not include the cost of new equipment, estimated at $1 million, or the financing cost itself.

Conclusion:

Therefore, a new hospital facility is necessary according to the following major reasons:

- The cost of upgrading the present facility.
- The difficulty of adding to the existing structure.
- The age of the original building and systems.
- The potential benefits of relocating the hospital on a site which would be closer to the geographically most populated areas of the community which it serves.
- The lack of disruption of health care services during construction.

Clerks chosen for new Justice Courts

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT
Rhonda Patton and Marie Klein will assume their new positions as Justice Court clerk and deputy clerk, respectively, on Jan. 1.

The two women were appointed to the posts by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors at the Oct. 13 board meeting.

Jim Pfeiffer, assistant board secretary, reports "at least 50 applicants" sought the two positions.

Patton and Klein begin preparing for their work at a 2-day training workshop this week in Jackson. The workshop, sponsored by the University of Mississippi Law Center, is required for certification as Justice Court clerks.

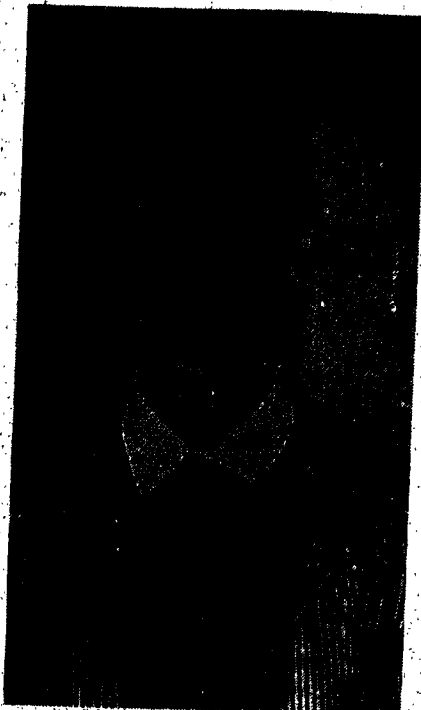

The workshop will cover such topics as duties and responsibilities, collecting fees, assessments, legal terminology, how to find the law, filing civil cases and processing criminal cases.

Patton, a native of Bay St. Louis, graduated from Our Lady Academy in 1974 and attended the University of Mississippi at Gulfport. She holds certificates for both the basic and advanced courses for legal secretaries sponsored by the National Association of Legal Secretaries.

Formerly employed by Gex, Gex and Phillips and Cook, Tucker and Sharp, Patton has worked for Favre, Genin and Scalfide since June 1, 1962.

Klein, a native of Washington, D.C., has resided in Hancock County for 24 years. She has worked as secretary and clerk for her husband, Justice Court Judge Lee Klein, for the past 12 years.

Drug charge guilty plea nets suspended sentence

By NAN PATTON EHRBRIGHT
The jury was dismissed Friday morning when Adrian Soulagnet changed his plea to guilty on charges of possession of marijuana.

Circuit Judge J. Ruble Griffin, on recommendations of Assistant District Attorney John (Sonny) Johnson, sentenced Soulagnet to three years, then suspended sentence.

The judge did not suspend a fine of $3,000, also recommended by Johnson, but agreed to accept the fine in monthly payments of $250.

Judge Griffin put Soulagnet under the supervision of Waveland police investigator Robert (Poochie) Tardavouille and ordered Soulagnet to work at the police station for six hours each Saturday and Sunday for six months.

In another sentencing, Judge Griffin withdrew the adjudication of guilt for Jerome Comer who pled guilty to embezzlement during the June court term.

Comer's attorney, Richard Smith, told the court that Comer is employed and is attending Jackson State University on a scholarship.

The withdrawal of adjudication will allow Comer to continue his education and get a job without a criminal record. Griffin placed Comer "on good behavior" and fined him $500 payable at $50 per month.

The trial of Donn Murray on charges of access before fact to fraud was continued to the January term.

Motions will be heard Monday in the case of William E. Sutherland, charged with receiving stolen property.

The trial of James Miller Jr. for burglary is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 27.

The trial of Louie Ladner and Woodrow Ladner on charges of fraud remains on the criminal calendar for disposition next week.

JUSTICE COURT

Also last week, District 4 Justice Court Judge Bruce J. Necaise ordered Hylon G. Lumpkin to be bound over to the Hancock County Grand Jury, which convenes in January.

Lumpkin, 44, of Picayune, is charged with rape, kidnapping, sexual battery and unnatural intercourse.

He has been held in the county jail since his arrest Sept. 28, but was released Thursday when Necaise reduced his bond from $100,000 to $20,000.

Sheriff's Department Investigator Delbert Seay said that Lumpkin allegedly left a Hwy. 43 bar on Sept. 24 with a woman whom he allegedly forced into a nearby house trailer and raped repeatedly, then dragged into the woods and continued to rape.

hand was on his .38 Smith and Wesson police revolver when it discharged. Hargett was shot four times. Jordan's wife sustained a flesh wound in her hip, was hospitalized that night and released the next morning.

Mrs. Jordan is still living with Jordan and is now five months pregnant. She testified that she "passed out" twice during the incident, once after she was shot and again when she saw Hargett's body on the floor.

Waveland Police Department Investigator Sandra Henley testified that

Mrs. Jordan told her at the hospital that Jordan kicked her in the door, shot Mrs. Jordan and said to Hargett, "You're next."

Judge Griffin instructed the five men and seven women on the jury that they could find Jordan guilty of either murder or manslaughter or not guilty.

The trial, which began Monday, went to the jury about 5 p.m. Wednesday. The jury deliberated until about 1:30 a.m. Thursday before reaching its verdict.

Eliminate residents to solve upland floodplain problems

The solution to Mississippi's 1.4 million-acre upland floodplain problem appears to lie in using flood-prone areas for agriculture, forestry and recreation.

Also, any buildings in the area should have floor levels above expected 100-year high water marks and carry flood insurance, according to Dr. Bob Chapin, coordinator of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service Land Use Center.

Chapin and other speakers talked about managing floodplains during a recent land use seminar at Mississippi State University.

Chapin said a good civil defense system is a must, and regulations are needed to prevent building in dangerous areas without proper safeguards.

Other participants at the seminar agreed that changes in the use of land subject to flooding are needed if a repeat of this year's massive flooding, which swamped 1.4 million acres in the state, is to be avoided.

These experts urged a number of courses of action and potential solutions for flood-prone areas of Mississippi. Among these were:

—New work to raise levees in the Delta.

—Channel clearing along the Tombigbee River.

—Seeking technical help in establishing flood insurance programs.

—Establishing bottomland hardwood stands.

—Conversion of cropland to more appropriate uses to slow runoff in watersheds.

—Better planning of roads and bridges for flood protection.

SLANT TOP DESKS

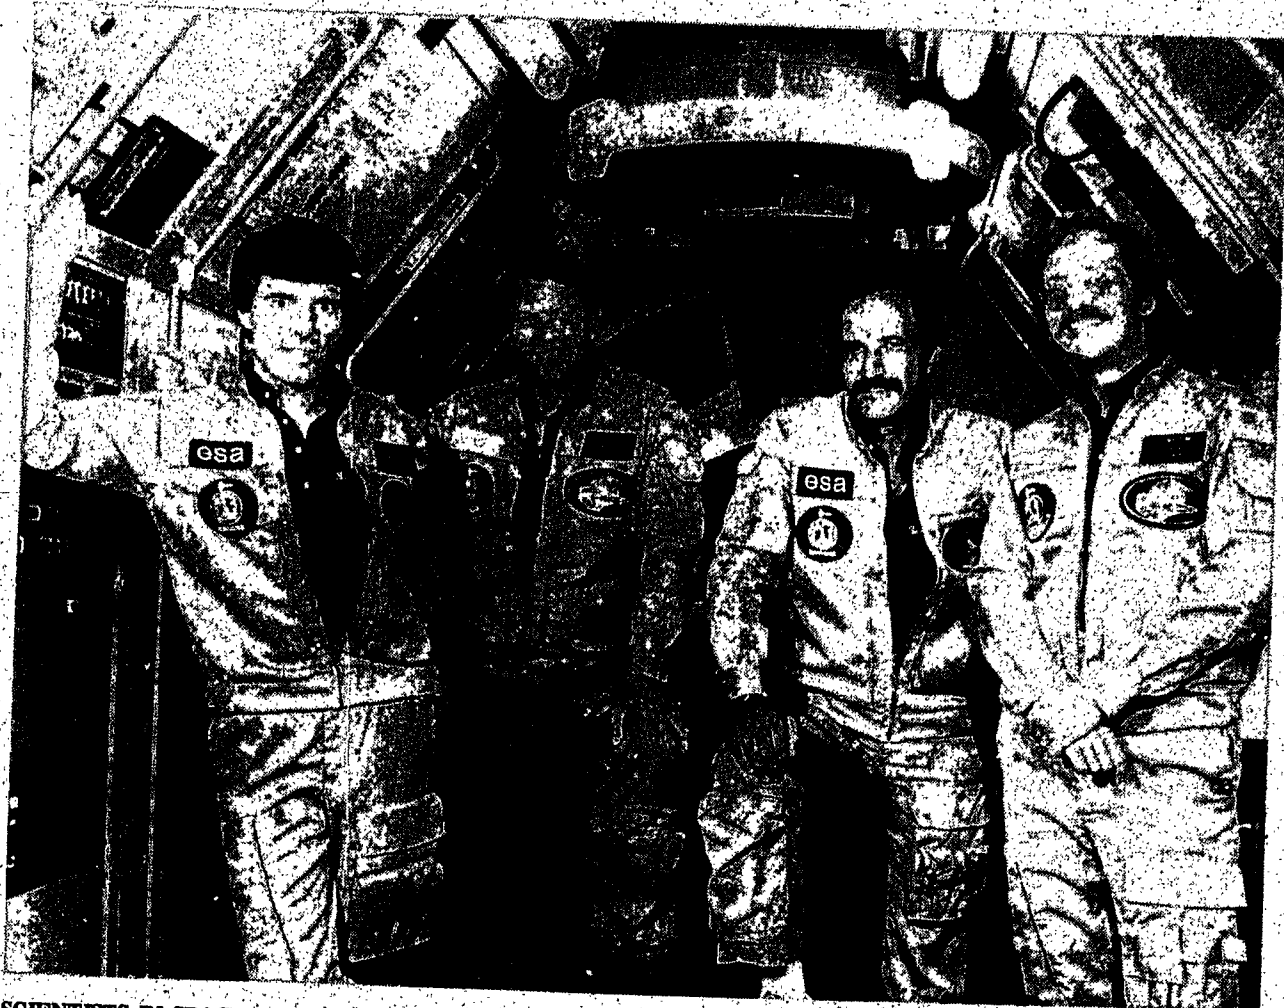

The slant top desk, commonly known as the Governor Winthrop Desk, is one of the most desired pieces of furniture in the antique market today. The one we picture is of the Chippendale style, made most likely during the last half of the 18th century. It is beautiful, functional and represents an excellent investment. During the 1950s, such a desk as this, made in birch or maple, would command about two hundred and fifty dollars. Now, one can rarely own a good one for less than a thousand, and most in these woods are approaching the two thousand mark depending on quality. Some in tiger maple or cherry will command much more because of the beautiful graining and the scarcity of the pieces.

Dimensions are important. The most desirable width is thirty-six inches. Those which measure thirty nine or forty, will command less money, because they are less desirable. Generally, the larger the piece, the less its value, so long as other qualities are comparable.

The leg style on this desk marks its period. The bracket base is made up of boards which are cut out in pleasing design. Naturally, such a leg construction is much easier to make than the carved bandy legs with ball and claw or ball and talon feet, so this desk would on the whole be worth less than those which feature the latter leg. The interior construction is most important in establishing value. This desk is quite pleasing and functional. Those, with more intricate interiors, showing much work more demanding on the artisan, will often be worth more. The wing brasses are appropriate for the period, though some will be found with the oval type which were popular in the Hepplewhite period which followed. Though the design was most popular during the third quarter of the 18th century, it is known that desks of this type were made as late as the early 19th century. Age does not set the value - it is the quality of the piece which is most important.

The earth's surface holds 324 million cubic miles of water.

SCIENTISTS IN SPACE—A highlight of the first mission of Spacelab, set for launch aboard the ninth Space Shuttle, will be the direct participation of an international team of scientists called "Payload Specialists." They are, from left, Dr. Ulf Merbold of the Republic of Germany and Dr. Byron Lichtenberg of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who will become the first crewmen other than NASA astronauts to fly in a U.S. spacecraft; Dr. Wubbo Ockels of the Netherlands and Dr. Michael Lampton of the University of California, Berkeley. Ockels and Lampton will serve as backup crewmen and will support flight operations from a Spacelab control center on the ground. The four scientists are pictured in a Spacelab training mockup at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala. Launch date for STS-9 remains indefinite.

MORE LENGTH THAN LEGS—A good home with a fenced yard is needed for this approximate one-year-old small size male dachshund found by a local resident in the Belle Chase Boulevard area of Algiers, La. The dog is very obedient, playful and obviously pure bred. No one has claimed this well cared for pet which is available through the Bay-Waveland Humane Society by telephoning 467-7439 after 4 p.m. or 467-9548 during the day. Crusaders pick Hawks clean in Biloxi Stadium cookout

By EDGAR PEREZ
Two crucial recoveries and a fourth quarter, 29-yard field goal by the Mercy Cross Crusaders resulted in the first regular season loss for the Hancock North Central Hawks Friday in Biloxi.

With what looked like more boys on the bench than there were fans in the stands, the Hawks failed to muster the spirit necessary to overcome their enthusiastic hosts. The Crusader players, coaches, students and followers greeted the final whistle and their 16-14 win over the Hawks with jubilation.

The Biloxi Catholics obviously had not expected to conquer the previously high-flying Hawks.

"When a ball club is as flat as we were I don't think there

Hancock turned in a total offensive effort of some 375 yards—202 rushing and 173 passing.

Incredibly, Mercy Cross officially gained only six yards on the ground and 184 in the air for a slim total offense of only 190 yards.

Ace Hawk tailback Lydell Curry carried 19 times for 98 yards and stalwart fullback Mark Jackson plunged 12 times for 119 yards.

Quarterback Scott Favre hit his receivers 10 times on 17 attempts for 173 yards.

Snagging the Favre aeriels were Gary Fricke with receptions of 19 yards and an exciting 61-yard touchdown completion.

In addition, Fricke accumulated a 44-yard average on three booming punts.

Darrin Ladnier caught three for 29 yards and Favre hit Tony Guldry once for 12.

Curry gained an additional 32 yards with three receptions. The Hawks gave up 119 yards on penalties, sustaining 11 calls.

Coach Favre, who found himself at one point in a heated disagreement with the referee over an apparently erroneous call in which an official ordered Scott Favre out of the game, considers the rash of penalties called against the Hawks as a contributing factor in the loss.

"We were losing every way we turned—we would have first and ten and when I looked around it would be first and 25," he moaned.

The Hawks scored first about midway through the first period on the first HNC possession when Favre hit Fricke from the Hancock 20 and the swift back angled his way across the field to outdistance a host of sword-waving Crusaders.

A fake-kick attempt for two points failed.

The Hawk defense forced the Crusaders to punt, but Hancock lost a fumble on its own five, setting up the first MC touchdown with 1:23 remaining in the first quarter. The conversion snap from center was high and a pass attempt incomplete, leaving a 6-6 tie posted on the Biloxi Stadium scoreboards.

The Hawks drove to within a half-yard of the Crusader endzone early in the second quarter, but with third and inches, an errant pitchout fell into the hands of Crusader back Glen Mattina who raced out to the HNC 46.

Quarterback Brad Canaan hit RB Sammy Sliman with a 55-yard touchdown pass, and Tackle Dale Harvey kicked an extra point shoving the host team out front 13-6 with 5:46 left in the half.

The Hawks bounced back at this point with a nine-play drive capped by a 13-yard touchdown plunge by Curry.

Mark Jackson drove in for two points and the Hawks were ahead 14-13 at intermission.

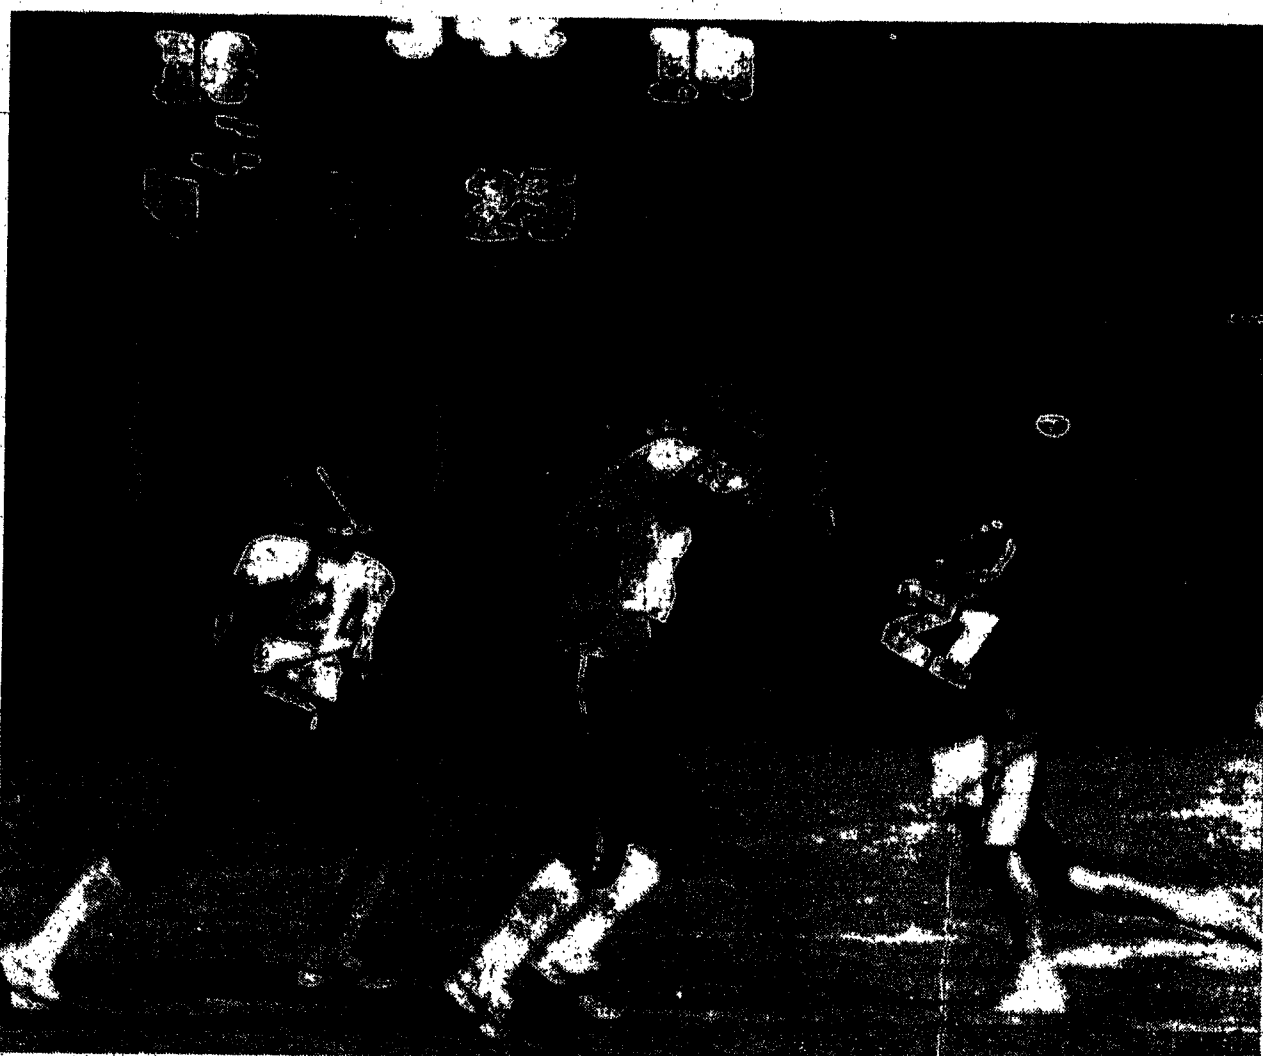

A 29-yard boot by Harvey barley edged over the cross bar to give the Crusaders their winning 16-14 margin in the opening seconds of the fourth period.

With less than two minutes left in the game, the Hawks again were knocking at the door of victory when Crusader End Mike Mullins intercepted at his own 14 yard line to kill the Hawk chance.

Irvin Favre noted the Hawks will have their hands full preparing for a tough, inter-county rivalry contest Friday against Bay High, a contest crucial to the Deep South Conference standings.

"There will be a capacity crowd in Hawk Stadium when this good Bay team which this week dumped St. Martin," Favre predicted.

"We're 6-2 and they're 7-1 and it's going to be a serious football game," he said.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE—The Biloxi Stadium scoreboard shows the Mercy Cross Crusaders to be 25 yards away from a first down and leading 16-14 with less than six minutes left in the game Friday against Hancock North Central. Hawk defenders pressuring Crusader Quarterback Brad Canaan are Gary Fricke (24) and Mickey Klehm (79). The Crusaders held onto the close lead to hand HNC its first loss of the regular season. The Hawks lost to Pearl River Central in an extra game early in the season and will face PRC in the final game of the regular season Nov. 4. (Echo staff photo by Edgar Perez)

FULL MOON MAGIC—Hancock North Central Tailback Lydell Curry forces his way into the Mercy Cross end zone late in the second quarter Friday to give the Hawks a 14-13 lead at intermission. HNC Guard Jimmy Papis (53) provides blocking under the October full moon in Biloxi Stadium, but the Crusaders spooked the Hawks with a fourth quarter field goal to win it 16-14. Trying to hold Curry back are Crusaders Sammy Sliman (5) and Glen Mattina (18). (Echo staff photo by Edgar Perez)

Tigers edge Jackets, 17-14

By RANDY PONDER
David McIver's three yard touchdown run late in the third quarter propelled Bay High to a 17-14 come from behind victory over St. Martin Friday night in Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers scored first in the see-saw battle on a 35 yard fieldgoal by Stace McRaney mid-way through the second period.

St. Martin stormed right back to capture a 7-3 halftime lead. The Yellow Jackets stung the Tigers with a 28 yard touchdown strike from Darren Dutil to Steve Walton in the endzone. Walton appeared to be well covered but managed to make a spectacular behind his shoulder catch.

Bay High started the second half in excellent scoring position at mid-field and quickly capitalized, moving in for their first TD and second lead of the game.

Willie Lewis raced to the 29 on a pitchout followed by a similar play to McIver that carried to the 18. Two downs later, quarterback Jeffrey Smith scampered across the goal on a 13 yard run to cap the short drive. The extra point attempt by Stace McRaney hit the cross bar, bouncing back onto the palying surface. The Tigers had taken a short lived 9-7 advantage.

St. Martin swifly rallied with an 80 yard run of their own.

Trace McRaney booted the ensuing kick-off into the teeth of a strong breeze and still reached the endzone, forcing the Jackets to start at their own 20.

Three plays later St. Martin reclaimed the lead when fleet footed Johnny Witcher dashed 60 yards for a TD. The PAT upped the score to 14-9 in favor of the visitors from the east.

Again the Tigers were up-to the task at hand, marching 64 yards for the final tally of the contest.

Harold Gillum received the kickoff and returned the ball to the Tiger 38. A halfback pass from McIver to Eddie Nelson moved the pigskin to the Jacket 33.

Another pass to Nelson reached the 15, setting the stage for McIver's three yard run for the points.

A two point conversion on a quarterback keeper by Smith around the left end gave the Tigers their final margin of victory, 17-14.

Bay High improves their record to 7-1 and will visit the Hancock North Central Hawks Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

The winner of this important Deep South Conference contest will have an excellent chance of taking the conference title. The winner will also claim the honor of county champions. Both teams have already defeated the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws.

DOWN HE GOES—St. Martin running-back Tim Simer is caught from behind by Tiger defender Eddie Nelson, 12, as Thomas Antoine, 77, and Willie Lewis chase the action. Bay High won the nonconference encounter 17-14 Friday night in Tiger Stadium to up their record to 7-1. The county championship will be determined Friday night when the Tigers square off against the Hawks at Hancock North Central in an important Deep South Conference matchup. (Echo photo by Randy Ponder)

Bulldogs leash Pirates to win contest, 7-zip

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
The Vancleave High School Bulldogs Friday night leashed the Pass Christian High School Pirates and held on to a 7-zip lead to win the nip and tuck contest on a balmy but humid fall evening in central Jackson County.

Both teams are experiencing a losing seasons which was evident with a lack of fans on both sides.

A slow moving, scoreless and defensive first half several times quieted the sparse spectators to the point that the game announcer's amplified voice was only thing competing with chirping crickets in the nearby woods. Pass Christian again experienced penalty problems which, along with the slightly stronger and quicker Bulldog line, iced their offensive drives.

The Pirate infractions primarily consisted of delay of game, illegal procedure and personal foul penalties.

Vancleave also had the advantage of a comparatively large number of substitutes which the Pirates sorely lack.

That weakness made the difference at the end of the third quarter when the weary Pirates' strength and sharpness began to wane. In addition, the Bulldog line throughout the evening pressured the usually accurate-passing Pirate Quarterback Joey Rogers which caused him to repeatedly overthrow the ball.

The Bulldogs also bottled up Pass Christian's rushing game by allowing virtually no openings in the backfield or line.

The game was scoreless up until the end of the third quarter with the Bulldog offense midway in their own territory in a second and five situation.

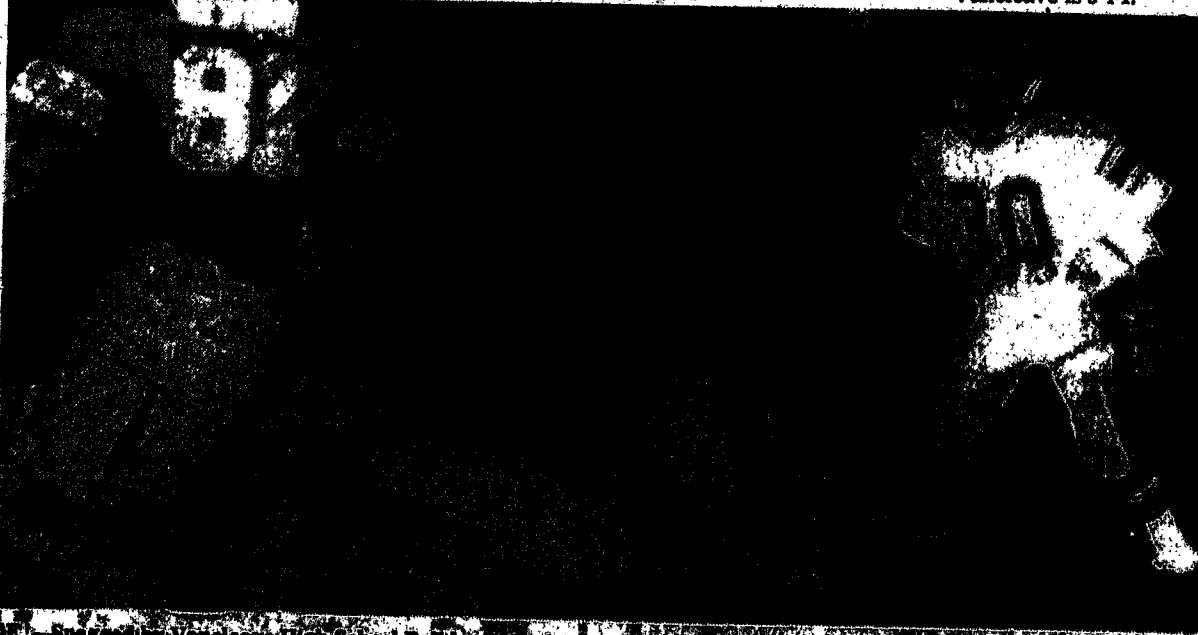

Vancleave Quarterback Reggie Wright unloaded a long pass to Back Riddell

Payton near the right sideline on the Bulldog 45-yard-line. Payton then dodged Pirate defenders and scampered 55 yards into the end zone with one minute and two seconds left in the quarter.

Bulldog Field Goal Specialist Roy Dunning added the extra point to set the game score of 7-zip.

The Vancleave defense held the Pirate offense and the Bulldog offensive squad hung on to the ball and the lead to win the game.

Pass Christian's season record has fallen to 2-6 and Vancleave is 3-4-1.

Rocks whitewash Hornets 21-0 to delight Homecoming hordes

BY TOM ACKERMAN
It might have been the Homecoming crowd—estimated at somewhat more than 2,000 cheering fans...

It might have been some shifts in the lineup—quarterback Casey Wittman to running back; running back Matt Scardino to playmaker...

It might have just been a lot of hard work after a 24-14 drubbing at the hands of Petal...

But whatever it was, it was a winning combination for the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws as they soundly defeated the East Central Hornets Friday night 21-0.

"We worked on our self-confidence this past week during practice," explained Rock head coach Vernon Powell. "It was the little mistakes that were killing us. But we were able to capitalize on the other team's mistakes tonight. Our boys really did a good job."

The coach's elation over the victory was understandable. The problem of working out a winning solution was compounded by several minor injuries that made it necessary to make some changes in the starting lineup.

Quarterback Wittman, still not up to par after suffering a bruised thigh in last week's contest, was shifted to tailback; and second string QB Scardino was moved into the starting slot.

To make matters worse, Sophomore running backs Todd Thrifflay and Mark Logan suffered bruises that almost made them have to watch from the sidelines. "But," added the coach, "the doctor gave them a clean bill of health before the game."

But in Friday's contest, the Rock-A-Chaws overcame all the obstacles and put on a feast for the alumni who had come to celebrate Homecoming.

The Rocks got the momentum that was to carry them through the game late in the first quarter when wingback Millard Dumesnil intercepted a Hornet pass and carried from the Stanislaus' 30 to the Hornet 17 setting up the first Rock TD early in the second quarter.

On the first down of the series leading to the score, Rock fullback, Chuck Yarborough pushed to the 15. Then Wittman connected on a Scardino pass and made it to the 2.

A delay-of-game penalty sent the Rocks back to the 7, but not to worry! With 10:29 left on the second period clock, Scardino sneaked across for the score. The point after by Russ Betcher was good, and Stanislaus was up by 7.

The second Rock score came late in the same period—not from the offense, but from the heads-up playing of the "graveyard" line.

The Hornets were deep in Rock territory, 10 yards to go for the score. With lightning agility, Rock-A-Chaw Chuck Yarborough caused the Hornets to lose control of the ball. Wittman, now on defense, scooped it up and ran 90 yards to chalk up another

TD. Betcher found the uprights again, and the Rocks had a little insurance going into the lockers, 14-0.

In the third period, the Rocks' defense managed to contain any threat from the opposition, but their own drives were stifled by some 80 yards in penalties.

Minutes into the fourth quarter, it looked as if the Rocks might capitalize on another Hornet error when Jimmy Thrifflay intercepted at the Stanislaus' 35. But the Hornets regained possession on the next play.

Later, it was a replay of the action with a Hornet fumble. This time Rock Marty Sahuque recovered to give the home team possession at the Hornet 15. The Stanislaus drive died with a punt.

After another futile attempt by the Hornets to get their momentum going, the Rocks took over on downs at the Hornet 42.

On the first play of the Rock series, running back Mark Logan scooted the distance, with 2:19 left in the game, for the final Stanislaus TD. Betcher again converted, and the Rocks held a healthy 21-0 lead.

With seconds left on the clock, the Hornets made one last valiant attempt, moving the ball from their own 29 to within 6 yards of a score. But the Rocks' "graveyard" line held, and the opponents went home scoreless.

The win brought the St. Stanislaus' record to 3 and 5, with a chance to work toward a break-even season next week with a homestand against Pass High. For the Rock seniors, this will be their last stand on home turf.

Making their last appearance before the home crowd will be seniors Casey Wittman, Darrin Scarborough, Russ Betcher, David LeBlanc, Marty Sahuque, Eric Nolan, Bill LaBauve, Tom Allen, John Robinson, Scott Songy, Ed Dunn, Humberto "Nacho" Anderson, Greg Naff, Jerry Kelly, Kenny Jackson, Tracey Marquez, Millard Dumesnil and Warren Seymour.

The following week, the Rocks will close out their season with a trip to Vancleve.

ASCS NEWS

ASC COMMITTEE
Farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice by Oct. 31 to be on the ASC Community Committee ballot, says Franklin A. Gennin, county executive director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office serving Pearl River and Hancock Counties.

The ASC community committee election will be conducted from Nov. 25 to Dec. 5 by mail ballot.

ASC committees are responsible for managing government farm programs on the local level.

To meet the needs of individual producers, ASC committee members must be concerned and responsible individuals, Gennin says.

Pearl River and Hancock County farmers have the opportunity to nominate persons they feel would best serve the farm community. Farmers have received petition forms by mail and are now submitting them to the county ASCS office.

A few basic considerations should be kept in mind when circulating petitions, Gennin said.

In order to be valid, petitions must be limited to one nominee each, must include written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected, must be signed by at least three eligible farm voters in the ASC community and must be received in the county ASCS office by the Oct. 31 deadline.

Farmers may circulate or sign nominating petitions for as many candidates as they choose. Anyone wishing to nominate a farmer for the ASC committee election may contact the county ASCS office for full details including eligibility requirements for office holders.

"Farmers should petition for and elect those individuals they feel would do a good job as a member of the ASC committee. The election of concerned farmers to positions on ASC committees is essential in the administration of farm programs," Gennin said. Gennin further explained that the county ASCS office welcomes all valid petitions.

The opportunity to nominate, vote, and be elected to office is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, age, color, or national origin.

ELIGIBLE VOTERS
A list of the names of all known eligible persons to receive ballots in the upcoming annual ASC committee election is available in the county ASCS office.

Farmers began nominating candidates for the ASC election on Oct. 8.

ASCs, an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, is responsible for farm program administration. On the local level, ASCS operates under a farmer-elected committee system. This year's elections will be by mail ballot between Nov. 25 and Dec. 5. Voters may also get ballots at the county ASCS office.

Anyone who meets the following requirements is eligible to vote in these farmer committee elections: any individual of legal voting age with an interest in a farm as owner, tenant, or sharecropper who is eligible to participate in any ASCS program.

Several general provisions relate to ASCS voter eligibility. A wife who operates a farm with her husband can vote if her name is on the deed of conveyance.

Any person under legal voting age can vote if he or she runs a farm, and a legal guardian who runs a farm for a child can vote for the child. No person can be denied the right to vote because of race, sex, age, color, religion, or national origin.

A person may cast a ballot in any county in which he or she is an eligible ASC voter, but he or she cannot vote in more than one community in the county. If an eligible voter has separate farm interests in more than one community in the same county, special care will be taken to see that only one ballot is issued to that voters.

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: What are the different types of listing agreements that can be made with a real estate broker?

A: A listing agreement is a legal contract that governs such conditions as the broker's fees, the right of the seller to negotiate on his or her behalf, and terms restricting the rights to sell.

An open listing contract is a listing wherein the owner lists the property for sale with one broker, but reserves the right to list the property concurrently with as many additional brokers as desired. The seller will owe a commission only to the broker who actually sells the house.

Exclusive agency contracts employ one broker as an agent for the property for a definite period of time, but also allow the owner to sell directly without an obligation to pay a broker's commission.

An exclusive right to sell contract appoints one broker as sole agent for a specified period of time and entitles the broker to a commission if a property is sold by any party within the time limits.

Q: What precautions should the buyer take to be sure that title is conveyed to his new property without any problems?

A: The buyer will want to assume a title that is "marketable," that is, free from all indebtedness or limitation on its use.

complete through a title search or examination of public records by an attorney, who then issues a certificate indicating the findings or supplies a written title opinion.

Q: What is title insurance and does a buyer need to purchase it?

A: If the buyer is obtaining a mortgage loan, the lender will require title insurance in the amount of the loan to protect himself against possible loss.

This insurance however does not protect the owner in the event that defects are found in the title. Owners title insurance insures the new owners' equity in the property. It is optional.

Q: How should a buyer take title?

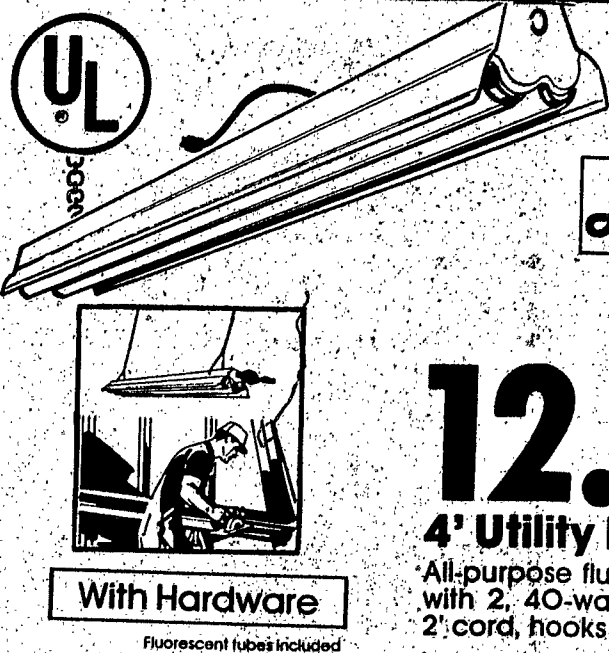

A: Title may be taken by an individual or by two or more parties in a joint ownership. If the parties are husband and wife, it is common to take title as joint owners with right of survivorship, so that the death of one party, title to the entire property is turned over to the survivor. However, estate taxes should be considered before deciding on this form of ownership.

Q: How does a condominium differ from a cooperative?

A: In a condominium, each owner holds title in his or her unit. With the respect to common areas, unit owners may be common tenants or joint tenants, depending on state law.

A cooperative means stock ownership of a multi-unit project where the buyers own shares but do not own the unit. The project is owned by a cooperative of which all

Nuptial Mass unites Henry, LaFontaine

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the September 30 marriage of Michele Therese LaFontaine and Frank Sullivan Henry. Rev. Henry McNerney celebrated a 6 p.m. Nuptial Mass and officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry of Waveland.

Baskets of multi-colored gladioli, carnations, fugl mums, daisies and baby's breath decorated the altar and sanctuary.

Offertory gift bearers were Donald Moran, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Henry, sister-in-law of the groom. Scripture readings were rendered by Sister Debra LaFontaine, cousin of the bride. Angie LaFontaine, niece of the bride, presented a unity candle to the couple.

Musical selections were offered by Mrs. Lana Noonan, vocalist, and Mrs. John McKenna, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white chiffon over bridal taffeta with empire bodice and Queen Anne neckline enhanced with generously beaded French Alencon lace. The long, tapered sleeves were appliqued with lace and edged with tiny crystal beading. Alencon lace in a teardrop pattern completely encircled the skirt and cathedral train above a deep flounce of crystal beaded chiffon. Her bridal hat was adorned with matching lace and pearls with illusion pouf and streamers at the back to cathedral length.

She carried a cascade of white silk roses, lily-of-the-valley, orange blossoms, baby's breath and French lace.

Denise LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis attended her sister as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Lorraine LaFontaine, Peggy Averhart and Helene Moran, sisters of the bride, Donna Moran, niece of the bride and Ember Smith, all of Bay St. Louis; Mary Reynolds of San Antonio, Tex., and Rita Gorman of Panama City, Fla., sisters of the groom.

The attendants were attired in Grecian style chiffon gowns in jewel tones each with softly gathered blouson bodice, capelet sleeves, A-line flared skirt, self rose and tie at the waist. They wore picture hats in the colors that matched their gowns with pearl-sprinkled illusion pouf and short streamers at the back.

They carried identical nosegays of orange blossoms, stardust baby's breath and Spanish blossoms in jewel-toned colors, trimmed with French lace and picot ribbon streamers, designed and made by Lorraine LaFontaine, sister of the bride.

Flower girls were Mendi LaFontaine of Long Beach and Micheline LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, nieces of the bride. They wore chiffonette dresses, each with a gathered ruffle collar, double ruffle hemline flounce and satin ribbon bows and sash. They also wore matching picture hats.

Francis Henry served his son as best man.

Groomsmen were Henry LaFontaine, brother of the bride; John Henry and Billy Henry, brothers of the groom; Lloyd Shubert and James Fine, all of Bay St. Louis; Robert Henry of Panama City, brother of the groom; and Albert Reynolds of San Antonio, brother-in-law of the groom.

Alan LaFontaine of Long Beach, brother of the bride, and Kenny Moran of Bay St. Louis, nephew of the bride, were ushers.

Ring bearers were Steven LaFontaine of Bay St. Louis, nephew of the bride, and Chad Henry of Panama City, nephew of the groom.

Mrs. LaFontaine chose for her daughter's wedding a pale blue gown of silesta with crystal pleated skirt, fitted V-neckline bodice topped with beaded sheer chiffon capelet.

The mother of the groom was attired in a formal gown of silk crepe in soft coral with long tapered sleeves and bodice enhanced with an inset of net applied with venise lace which formed a yoke and a stand-up collar.

A reception followed the ceremony at the American Legion Hall in Bay St. Louis. Decorations included baskets of fresh flowers. Assisting at the reception were Aline LaFontaine, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Michael LaFontaine, Tea girls were Melissa Moran and Angie LaFontaine, nieces of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mex., the couple resides in Waveland.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

A miscellaneous shower was hosted by the bridesmaids August 12 at the American Legion Home in Bay St. Louis.

Friends and co-workers of the bride gave a miscellaneous shower at the Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity building at the National Space Technology Laboratories.

The Pepper Mill Restaurant in Waveland was the site of the rehearsal dinner September 29 hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry.

Waveland Auxiliary, police sponsoring child fingerprinting

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 77 and the Waveland Police Department will be fingerprinting children at the Legion Hall on Coleman Avenue Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The program is open to all children from birth to 18 years of age.

Missing children are rapidly becoming a major problem in our country and the American Legion has designated this problem as an area of special concern nationwide.

Of the approximately 150,000 children that are abducted each year, 50,000 are taken by strangers and 100,000 by non-custodial parents of divorces or separations.

Of these numbers, 10 percent are found alive and about another 10 percent are found dead.

The rest are never seen again, alive or dead, by their families. The odds of recovery at best could only be labeled as dismal.

If you had to, how many yes answers could you give to the following questions?

1. Could you show authorities a picture of your child taken three months ago, six months, twelve months?

2. Could you give authorities copies of your child's fingerprints?

3. Do you know the names and addresses of your child's close friends?

4. Does your child's school call you to verify the absence of your child?

5. Does your child have a passport?

6. Do you have copies of birth certificates, copies of x-rays of fractured or broken bones, copies of dental records?

When an ex-spouse is involved:

7. Could you give authorities a social security number, current address and previous place of employment for the ex-spouse?

8. Do you know the names, addresses, and places of employment for ex-in-laws?

9. Did you include in the custody order the prohibiting of transfer of school records without your permission, and file a copy of it at the school?

"We feel this fingerprinting program is vital in protecting our community's children," stated Dorothy Bielstein, president of Unit 77.

"In many cases parents are hesitant to bring their children because they think their child's prints will be held by the authorities. In fact, the prints will be given to the parent to keep at home. Because of that you can see why even visitors to our area should come to have their children printed as well. There is no cost to the parent for this program. The Waveland Police Department has volunteered the service of its officers who will perform the printing and members of Auxiliary Unit 77 will be on hand to assist.

"Besides the fingerprinting, there will be material available on other ways of protecting your children and information on how to register your child with Child Find Inc.," added Kathleen Marione, Unit 77's children and youth chairman.

"We urge you to bring your child, your grandchild or any child you love to the Legion Hall on Saturday. All it will cost is a few minutes of your time; important minutes to protect your most important possessions," Marione added.

Phillips addresses Legal Secretaries

Walter J. Phillips, partner in the Bay St. Louis law firm of Gex, Gex & Phillips, was guest speaker for the October 13 meeting of Harrison-Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association.

He discussed the benefits of structure settlements, which concept has become more popular with the advent of the high cost of living and larger sums of money being awarded in court cases. Structured settlements allow for the payment of funds over a period of time rather than a lump sum payment.

New members Kathy Plummer, Linda Smith, Mona Thomas, and Jane Ungaro were installed by chapter president Linda Penrose, who also announced the appointment of Lori Briggs as program chairman.

Billie Ruddick reported on the Mississippi Association of Legal Secretaries (MALS) fall board meeting and seminar held in Meridian on September 17 and 18. Ilyne Stewart of Gulfport, MALS president, conducted officer workshops and business meetings.

Mrs. Ruddick also reported there are 28 enrollees in the NALS Official Course, a study on various areas of the law, currently being sponsored by Harrison-Hancock LSA.

Denise Faucett presented a legal education quiz regarding reference sources.

Mrs. Verta Lee Swetman, Chief Deputy Clerk, U.S. District Court, Biloxi, will be guest speaker for the November 10 dinner meeting, 6:30 p.m., Western Sizzlin' Steak House, Courthouse Road, Gulfport.

The Princess Shoppe Teen Board

THE PRINCESS SHOPPE held its second annual Welcome Tea for the newly elected 1983-84 Teen Board Sunday, Oct. 16 at 3 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Fahey III. Enjoying the afternoon event were the 50 members and their mothers. Plans were presented for the upcoming year and the girls enjoyed meeting fellow Teen Board members from New Orleans, Waveland, Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport and Ocean Springs. A fun and informative year was outlined by the Teen Board Staff. Members pictured are from left Candy Bode, Helene Lolacano and Michele Blenvenu.

Sacred Heart Brothers superior general plans visit here this week

Brother Jean-Charles Daigneault, superior general of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, will visit the Brothers in the New Orleans Province for one week beginning Sunday to tour their schools and residences.

Daigneault will be making his first visit to the United States since being elected superior general of the worldwide order during its last General Chapter in Rome during August of 1982.

As superior general he rules the religious congregation of approximately 1,600 men serving the Catholic Church in 28 countries.

Accompanying him on his tour will be two of his six assistants—Brother Marcel Riviere from the New Orleans Province and Brother Jean Roure from France.

They will remain an additional week for a more thorough tour.

Purpose of the visit is to provide the superior general with an overview of the New Orleans Province and its personnel, its religious lifestyle, its community life, its prayer life, and its apostolic works—in short, it is an opportunity for getting acquainted.

On the itinerary will be the following schools where the Brothers of the Sacred Heart teach: Brother Martin High School in New Orleans, La.; St. Stanislaus High School at Bay St. Louis; McGill-Toolen High School in Mobile, Ala.—the city where in 1947 the Brothers of the Sacred Heart first taught on American soil; Vanderbilt Catholic High School in Houma, La.; E.D. White Catholic High School in Thibodaux, La.; and Catholic High School in Baton Rouge, La.

Prior to the scheduled visit, Brother Daigneault and his counselors met with the three United States provincial superiors in Pascoag, R.I., last week.

Brother Xavier Werneth, New Orleans provincial, attended.

"We talked about such pertinent topics as those referred to in Pope John Paul II's recent letter to U.S. religious, especially the decline in religious vocations," Werneth said.

"We finalized plans for a meeting in Africa in January to study our missions in Zambia, Zimbabwe, Lesotho, Kenya, and Uganda, and we discussed the process of approval used by the Sacred Congregation in Rome in approving our order's Rule of Life which was recently revised and the effects of the new Canon Law on that Rule."

The visit to the New Orleans area is part of a tour of the U.S. which includes the New York and the New England provinces as well as the New Orleans province.

While in the New Orleans

Province, the superior general and his assistants will meet with the Provincial Council of the province—four brothers who are elected to assist the provincial.

They are Brothers Ivy LeBlanc, Mark Thornton, Lee Barker, and Felician Fourrier.

On the agenda for this meeting are such topics as finances, spiritual renewal sessions, recruiting of vocations, major goals and projects of the province, and recent research on Catholic education.

Daigneault, a member of the Arthabaska Province in Canada, served in Rome as an assistant from 1970 until his selection at the General Chapter of 1982 in Rome to be superior general of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart throughout the world.

In preparation for his visit to the United States, the French-speaking superior general spent several weeks in England learning to express himself in English.

Upon leaving the United States he will visit Canada, then return briefly to Rome before the scheduled meetings in Africa early in 1984.

from Australia, Jesus Marin from Spain, Superior General Jean-Charles Daigneault from Arthabaska, Jean Roure from France, and Marcel Riviere from New Orleans.

Mock murder trial staged by Legal Secretaries Assn.

In connection with Court Observance Week, Oct. 9-15, a mock murder trial sponsored by the Harrison-Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association was held Oct. 15 in the Harrison County Courthouse, Gulfport.

The case centered around information set forth in a fictitious grand jury report which charged John Diamond with first degree murder in connection with the shooting death of Trudy Doyle at the Truck Stop Cafe on Highway 33 outside Nita City.

After hearing testimony, the jury, consisting of spectators selected from the audience, found Diamond not guilty of the charge. Tim Holleman, playing the role of Diamond, testified that Doyle grabbed his pants and he knocked the gun upward with a judo motion. Then he caught the gun between his hands as it came down, and the gun accidentally went off.

Boyce Holleman served as the circuit court judge. Gaston Hewes Jr. as prosecuting attorney, and James K. Wetzel and Jess H. Dickinson as defense counsel.

Acting Gulfport Police Chief

Hayward Hargrove played the role of Nita City Chief Investigator, and Elizabeth Brewer, Lori Briggs, and Linda Penrose acted as witnesses.

Jamie Pycha was Day in Court chairman, assisted by Pam Metzler, Roberta Burleson, Sue Huffman, Linda Penrose, Dana Pollock, Frances Pavre, Billie Rudick, and Betty Lou Clark.

Langston reports on new medicare payment program

"Medicare patients will experience no reduction in the quality of their treatment, nor any increase in personal expenditures as a result of Hancock General Hospital's participation in the federal government's medicare prospective payment program," Phillip Langston, HGH administrator, said.

After an initial phase-in period, Medicare inpatient hospital care at Hancock General will be paid for by the federal government according to a predetermined, fixed schedule of prices, based on approximately 450 diagnosis-related groups (DRGs) and average costs of treating Medicare patients in each DRG.

Medicare patients at Hancock General will be matched to the appropriate DRGs, and federal payment will be made accordingly, with allowances for regional and urban/rural cost differences.

Under the previous method of federal payment, hospitals were paid for each Medicare inpatient according to expenses actually incurred, with some controls and limitations.

"Incentives for reducing costs and increasing efficiency were minimal," he said.

"Under prospective payment, however, the fixed schedule of prices will reward efficiency and penalize excessive expenditures. Hospitals operating within the DRG prices will realize a profit on those DRGs; those outside DRG limits will experience a loss, thus creating a dual set of mutually reinforcing incentives for hospitals to actively participate in the effort to reduce the rate of increase of health care costs."

"Medicare prospective payment will assist Hancock General Hospital in its commitment to provide excellent medical care for every patient," said Langston, "and help to insure the continued availability of that care by creating positive incentives to reduce the rate of increase of health care costs."

Waveland Revco
employees win
Impact contest

Employees of the Revco Discount Drug Center in Chocoma Plaza, Waveland, have won $500 in a Revco chain 'Ideas to Maximize Profits And Cultivate Thrift' contest. Objective of the competition was to highlight ways in which local Revco managers had implemented programs which helped keep down costs while improving business.

Stores were invited to enter any of all of nine categories which included customer service, community involvement, employee communication, inventory control, pharmacy-doctor relations, safety, security, special displays and store appearance.

Entries were judged on originality, adaptability and overall impact.

Out of hundreds of entries, judges selected 50 top winners who were awarded a cash prize of $500 to use as they wished, plus a special award plaque to display in the store.
